

The settings are hidden under the Settings-menu, in the Mail section:

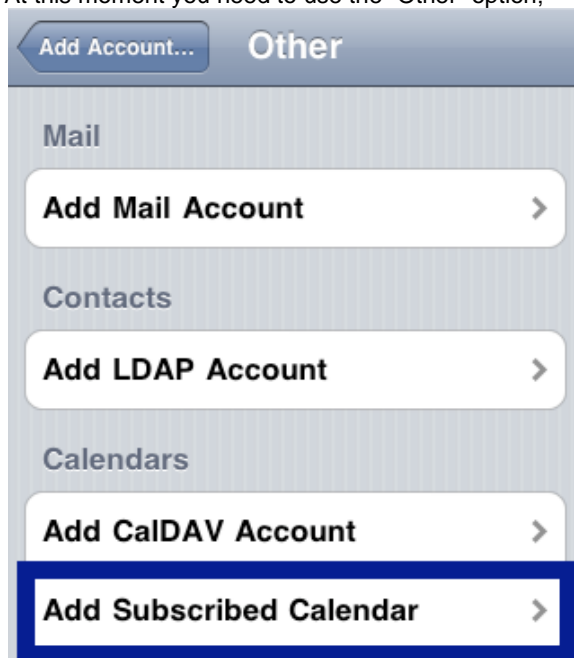

In the current version, you can add calendar subscriptions in the same menu as mail accounts:

At this moment you need to use the "Other" option;

You can give the URL to an ics file in the next screen

<https://som.ucdmc.ucdavis.edu/med/ical/year1/calendar.ics?nocache>

<https://som.ucdmc.ucdavis.edu/med/ical/year2/calendar.ics?nocache>

<https://som.ucdmc.ucdavis.edu/med/ical/year3/calendar.ics?nocache>

Enter your subscribed calendar information

Cancel

Subscription

Next

Server

securityandthe.net/satn.ics

Subscribed Calendar account verified

Cancel

Subscription

Save

Server

securityandthe.net/satn.ics

Description

securityandthe.net/satn.ics

Username

Optional

Password

Optional

Use SSL

OFF

Remove Alarms

OFF

The subscribed calendar now shows up next to your other calendars. It updates automatically based on the schedule you have set for updating mail. When set to “Manually” it updates as soon as you access the calendar.

Calendars

On My iPhone

All on My iPhone

Subscribed

securityandthe.net/